

Curriculum for A2.3 Advanced Beginning German 3

Materials: Schritte International Neu 3+4, Chapter 10–14; Kursbuch (textbook), Arbeitsbuch (workbook)

Course Content

Structurally: A 2.3 is the last course in the Advanced Beginning sequence. Students will continue to practice structures they have learned so far and expand their knowledge regarding questions by studying additional question words and ways to express questions. Students will learn different subordinate clauses and study the subjunctive. Students will focus on speaking and writing about the past.

Functionally: Students will continue to expand their vocabulary and their structures to talk about topics of personal interest. They will learn to express complaints or apologize and also to express wishes or give advice. They will learn to understand and provide detailed descriptions and information about cultural events, and they will write stories.

Objectives

At the end of A 2.3, students will be able to talk about their personal and professional lives. Beyond descriptions, they will be able to express wishes and understand simple conversations. They will be able to understand detailed descriptions of vacation stays. They can recognize stereotypes and prejudices and react in culturally appropriate ways when meeting strangers. They can open a bank account and deal with financial situations.
