Hier & There Storycast: Gelb und Rosa Hörspiel

Storycast took a fun detour last month, presenting a professionally acted, scored, and edited Hörspiel (radio play) called Gelb und Rosa (Yellow and Pink). The Hörspiel was adapted from an original play produced by Hamburg-based director Julia Hart and her theater company, Show and Tell. In the play, two wooden puppets, one of them pink, the other one painted yellow, wake up in the middle of a meadow and look at each other. They ask themselves: Who are we? And how did we get here? They begin to speculate about where they might have come from. They look closely at each other. They marvel at how anything so perfectly formed could come to be. Pink thinks, "Someone must have made us." And Yellow claims, "I think we were created by coincidence." This sparks an intelligent, lively argument that gets more and more ridiculous.

*Gelb und Rosa was awarded a grant from the Behörde für Kultur und Medien Hamburg and the Hamburgische Kulturstiftung.

Hier & There Podcast: Racism—The Teenager-Adult Perspective.

In this episode, host Guenther Jahn interviews a group of young adults who completed a summer Teen Intensiv workshop with GAI Language Education Director Caroline Blank. The week-long workshop was held for high school students with advanced German to explore the topic of racism in Germany. The students share their views about racism and equality in the United States and Germany. Their strong opinions and insights can be surprising. But most of all, their comments offer an inspirational look into the future generation's leadership for these important issues on both sides of the Atlantic.

Campers had the run of the Haus and grounds this summer, learning German while being immersed in fun themes. The GAI will have a little less energy (and be quieter) when camps end on August 27.

AROUND THE HAUS

In addition to the Saturday work sessions, Haus and Ground meets every Thursday morning at 9 a.m. for gardening and general repairs. It's been a hot dry summer, and we also need volunteers to help with watering.
