

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 21 | 9 AM–NOON CENTRAL TIME | ZOOM

This training will cover three topics of high interest and classroom application to all German teachers, particularly those at the middle and high school levels. There is no cost for this training but registration is required. Goethe-Institut CEUs will be available for participants.

AGENDA

9:00–10:00 AM | Theresa Fuchs, Goethe-Institut Chicago and Susan Feiler, German teacher at Hayt Elementary School in Chicago—Rassismus in Deutschland (Racism in Germany)

Presents the definition of racism and important vocabulary, the situation in Germany, introduction to German colonial history, important current discourses in Germany concerning racism, resistance against racism in Germany, methods, ideas and suggestions to include this topic into German lessons in the U.S. on all levels.

10:10–10:40 AM | Myriam Klein, GACCOM Chicago—Germany’s Dual Education System

How does Germany’s dual education system differ from the “College for All” model in the United States? What does Germany’s “earn and learn” apprenticeship model entail, and how does it contribute to a highly-skilled workforce? These questions and more will be addressed as we take a deeper look at Germany’s post-secondary education pathways.

10:40–11:25 AM | Caroline Blank, GAI—Requirements and Options for Study in Germany

Young people today have many more options for studying in Germany beyond traditional college exchange programs. Content to include logistics related to visas, health insurance, and the application process, as well as new pathways for non-German speakers.

11:30 AM–12:00 PM Nils Martin, Goethe-Institut Washington, DC

Nils Martin from the Goethe-Institut in DC will take participants on a virtual tour of the Institut’s new “Career Bus” and Study Bridge.
