

Part-time German instructors for adult classes (on-site)
Germanic-American Institute, St. Paul, Minnesota

Overview

The Germanic-American Institute is a Minnesota non-profit organization, located on historic Summit Avenue in St. Paul. The GAI is the most prominent center for German language and culture education in the United States, and our mission is to connect people to a broader world through German language and culture. We operate two German Immersion preschools, a Saturday school, summer camps, and adult language classes for every level, in addition to producing a wide array of cultural programs throughout the year. The GAI is also a Goethe-Institut proficiency exam testing center and sanctioned Kulturgesellschaft.

Hours: The positions average two classes / week with each adult class lasting 2.5 hours. Most classes are scheduled weekday evenings. Classes are offered in-person at the GAI or online with Zoom. Courses are offered year-round with the heaviest class load during Fall, Winter and Spring sessions.

The ideal candidate for this job is passionate about German language education and has experience with teaching German as a foreign language.

The GAI offers a variety of classes for beginners to nearly-fluent adult students along with Samstagsschule for kids and teens. Adult students range from working professionals to retirees, to the occasional high school student, with many different reasons for learning German.

The core academic curriculum is provided, with the ability to supplement and adjust based on individual preferences.
