GERMAN IMMERSION EDUCATION CONFERENCE

Attention German Immersion Language Education Professionals!
Dates: May 30th (9-5 pm) & May 31st (9-12 pm)

Join us for a conference to strengthen the network of German immersion teachers to share best practices, promote German language learning, and educate participants about contemporary German culture. This is the very first pre-K to secondary “German Immersion Language Education Conference” (GIEC) organized by and to be held at the Germanic-American Institute in St Paul, MN, in cooperation with the Zentralstelle für das Auslandsschulwesen der Bundesrepublik Deutschland.

Consider holding a workshop, giving a presentation on best practices, or presenting an academic paper in the field of German immersion education. The uploading deadline for your contributions is January 31st. The cost for participation in this conference is $100, with an early bird discount of $30 off when you register before January 31st.
