

Scholarship Application for TCGIS Capstone Trip

Description

The Germanic-American Institute is accepting applications for scholarships for students participating in the TCGIS Capstone Trip. The GAI is excited to help support this exciting endeavor for families and students who may need some financial assistance for their trip. We can offer partial scholarships depending on the family, their financial status, and motivation for the scholarship. Deadline to apply is November 30, 2025.

Criteria for Evaluation

Scholarship applications will be evaluated on the following:

- Financial need
- Response to both student and parent questions
- Completed application form, including most recent Federal Income Tax Return showing adjusted gross income or other proof of income documents if no tax return was filed
- Applicants must be a student at the Twin Cities German Immersion School and participating in the Capstone Trip to be eligible for the scholarship

Applicant Information

Full Name		Application Date
Parent or Guardian
Email		Phone
Street Address		German Teacher
City/State		Zip Code

Applicant Questions

Parent Question #1: What current financial factors qualify your child for a need-based scholarship? Please explain any circumstances to help clarify your current financial status and need.

Applicant Questions (continued)

Parent Question #2: How many dependents do you have on your most recent tax return?

Student Question #1: Why are you interested in attending the TCGIS Capstone Trip?

Student Question #2: What do you hope to gain through this experience?

Student Question # 3: Do you agree to write a report on your experience during your trip and send it back to the Germanic-American Institute?

Thank you for filling out the TCGIS Capstone Trip Scholarship Application! We will evaluate each application and make a decision based on needs of the student and family. The deadline for applications is November 30, 2025.

Student
Signature

Date

Parent
Signature

Date

